Book Reviews and Award Contest

Reader's Favorite recognizes Alliance.125: Hirunda in its 2015 International Book Award Contest

Readers' Favorite has become the fastest growing book review and award contest site on the Internet. They have earned the respect of renowned publishers like Random House, Simon & Schuster, and Harper Collins, and have received the "Best Websites for Authors" and "Honoring Excellence" awards from the Association of Independent Authors. They are also very proud to be fully accredited by the BBB (A+ rating), which is a rarity among Book Review and Book Award Contest companies.

In addition to reviewing for some of the biggest names in the literary industry, as well as the first time independent author, they host a respected award contest which features entries from new authors to New York Times best-sellers, as well as celebrities like Jim Carrey and Henry Winkler.

The 2015 Readers' Favorite International Book Award Contest featured thousands of contestants from over a dozen countries.

"Readers' Favorite is proud to announce that "Alliance.125: Hirunda" by Raita Jauhiainen is a Bronze Medal Winner in the Fiction - Dystopia category in our 2015 International Book Award Contest."

The Alliance.125 story takes place in an unspecified future time. In the first book of HIRUNDA, Jani 821771, a young man living in the biggest city in the world, Gavialis, unexpectedly receives an invitation to the inner parts of the city. This triggers a chain of events, which eventually leads Jani beyond the city borders.

The First Book of Hirunda is also the WINNER of Self-Publishing Review 2014 Full Moon Awards (Science Fiction)

"The set up of Hirunda is familiar to other dystopian series. A major war has led to a complete restructuring of society (see The Hunger Games, even Star Trek's utopia started with WWII). Though this is a familiar trope, Jauhiainen's universe is completely original, and wildly ambitious." -Henry Baum
